ENERGATE HONORED WITH GREEK GREEN AWARD

ENERGATE Project Honored with Prestigious Greek Green Award as "Best European Project for the Environment"

Athens, Greece – Saturday, February 22, 2025, marked a remarkable milestone for the ENERGATE Project, as it was honored with the prestigious Greek Green Award as the "Best European Project for the Environment"! This extraordinary honor highlights our relentless passion and groundbreaking efforts toward sustainability and pioneering innovation in energy efficiency financing.

John Psarras, Project Coordinator from DSS Lab, EPU NTUA, opened the award ceremony with an inspiring speech, presenting the innovative ENERGATE platform. This dynamic tool successfully connects building owners, financiers, implementors, and public bodies, revolutionising the approach to energy efficiency.

Katerina Papapostolou, our esteemed Project Manager from DSS Lab, further engaged attendees by showcasing outstanding project results and clearly illustrating why ENERGATE was recognised as a sustainability frontrunner.

The entire ENERGATE team is invigorated by this recognition and remains passionately dedicated to further advancing energy efficiency financing solutions. Their unwavering goal is to ensure sustainability remains accessible, practical, and closely aligned with market demands.

This award symbolises more than an achievement—it represents the beginning of an exciting new chapter as ENERGATE continues to lead the journey toward a sustainable and efficient energy future.
